

Accounting

Written by WVSU Medical Center

A unit where all transactions that are financial in nature are recorded, classified, summarized in accordance with the generally accepted accounting principles and standards and interpret the results thereof.

All transactions are in adherence to laws, rules, and regulations of government.

Compliance to existing policies, procedure of government transaction.