

Dietary

Written by WVSU Medical Center

---

The Dietary Services exists to provide total nutritional care to patients and personnel through nutritious and healthful meals. The department is committed to do this at all times through continuous staff development and education, upgrading facilities and equipment to facilitate safe, sanitary and timely provision of food service to meet the nutritional needs of the patients and personnel.