

Kidney Care Unit

Written by WVSU Medical Center

The Kidney Unit aims to:

- Provide exceptional medical treatment to serve patients in a professional manner, with emphasis on the quality of service, in delivering the ideal treatment methods in the management of patients with renal failure referred for dialysis treatment.
- Conduct education sessions to patients and families as regards to prevention of kidney disease through early detection and intervention program.